Fortress Queen

Miss Jeanne Sanders

Fortress Queen Is Drake Relays Candidate

Representing Wartburg College in the Drake Relays Queen competition is the 1969 Fortress Queen, Miss Jeanne Sanders. Jeanne, an elementary education major from Waverly, was chosen from the senior class by the members of the yearbook staff. The queen, a well-known campus personality, was attended by Miss Sandy Luckritz, an elementary education major from Clinton, Iowa, and Mrs. Carol Gutmann of Waverly, a business-economics major.

A basketball half-time became the setting for the coronation. Dr. John Bachman presented Miss Sanders with a glittering tiara, and Fortress Editor Eileen Grulke awarded her with a dozen red roses.

Homecoming Queen

Miss Dianne McDougall

Homecoming Follows Theme "Lower Upper Iowa"

Flaming bonfires, mystery convos, screaming pep rallies, dorm decorations, tantalizing smorgasbords, fireworks, band concerts, colorful parades, tugs of war, football games, queens, balls and cross-country meets, all become part of Wartburg's Homecoming. Paralleling the excitement was the sports theme of "Lower Upper Iowa," and the religious theme of "Bread for the World."

Visiting alumni, friends and families were caught in the excitement of the coronation of Queen Dianne McDougall, the "Yell Like Hell" contest, a victorious football team and the romantic dance mood of "As It Was."

WITH REGAL splendor, Queen Dianne McDougall gives encouragement to football fans and thanks to the student body.

HAPPY MEMORIES, culminated by her coronation, foreshadow the coming events of Dianne McDougall's weekend.

MAJESTIC ENTERTAINMENT for the queen and her subjects is provided by Gary Heffner, Jan Barth and Bill Behrens.

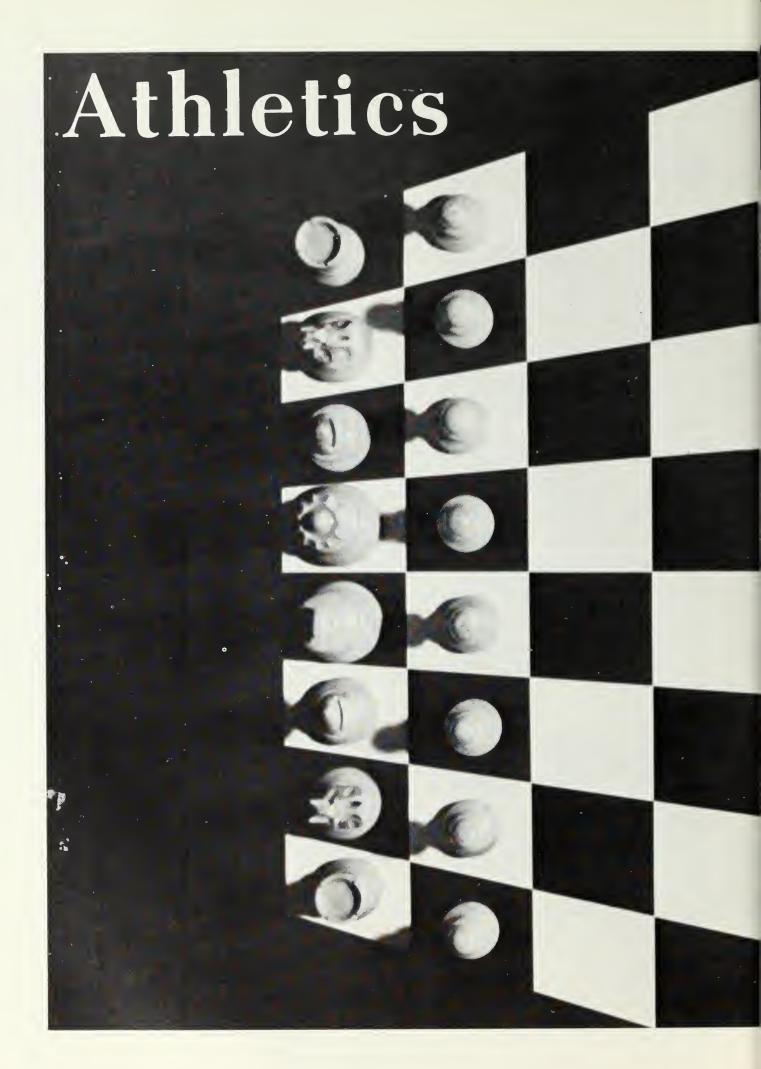

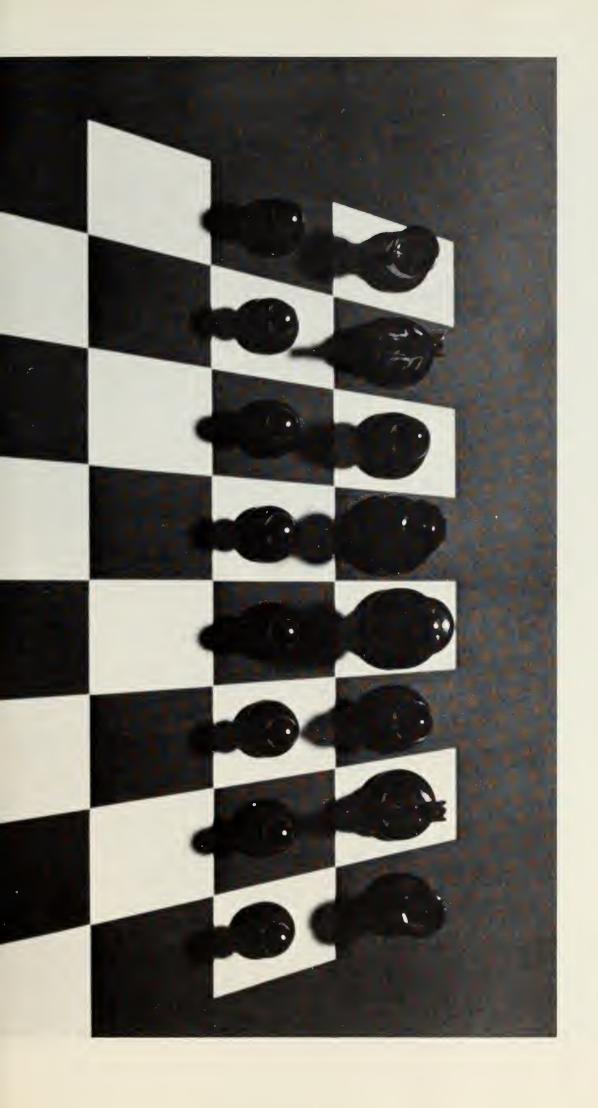

RAVISHING BEAUTIES of Vollmer House, Jim Seidel and Lyle Opheim, realistically portray "Peacock Royalty."

TRADITION PREVAILS as Student Body President Ron Hall gallantly dons knightly armor to lead the Homecoming parade.

ROARING MOTORCYCLES earrying shivering cheerleaders scoot between floats to add a bit of excitement to the parade.

Football Team Sets Thirteen School Records

"We're through talking about rebuilding. We've reached the point where the only way to judge improvement is by the number of games we win," said Coach Lee Bondhus. The rebuilding program resulted in a 7—1—1 overall record, an Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship and holders of thirteen new school records.

Seven of these marks were set by running back Gary Nelson and quarterback Paul Specht, who led the Knights' dramatic climb from last to first place for the first time since 1959.

Balance is the word which most accurately describes Wartburg's attack this season. The offensive yardage was distributed between rushing (1605 yards) and passing (1219 yards). The defense finished on top in the conference, as it registered three shut-outs.

It is impossible to single out one or two key players' making the difference between success and defeat. "It is impossible to explain or understand the spirit and wonderful attitude which this team had," said Bondhus. "This was the year our players decided to win, and that's exactly what they did."

DUBUQUE FANS wait anxiously as Wartburg's offense readies for action, but are disappointed at a 27—14 final score.

INCHES AWAY from the goal, quarterback Paul Specht strains toward the end zone in a vain attempt for the touchdown.

PUSHING FOR the first down, Westmar loses control of the ball through the jarring defensive action of Bob Brown.

POWERFUL BLOCKING enables sophomore halfback Clarence Allen to gain sufficient valuable yardage for a first down.

DEFENSIVE ACTION by offensive players proves effective as Reese Morgan and Bob Brown move in on a pass interception.

"TOUCHDOWN!" MOTIONS the referee as Wartburg goes into the end zone and clinches another conference victory for itself.

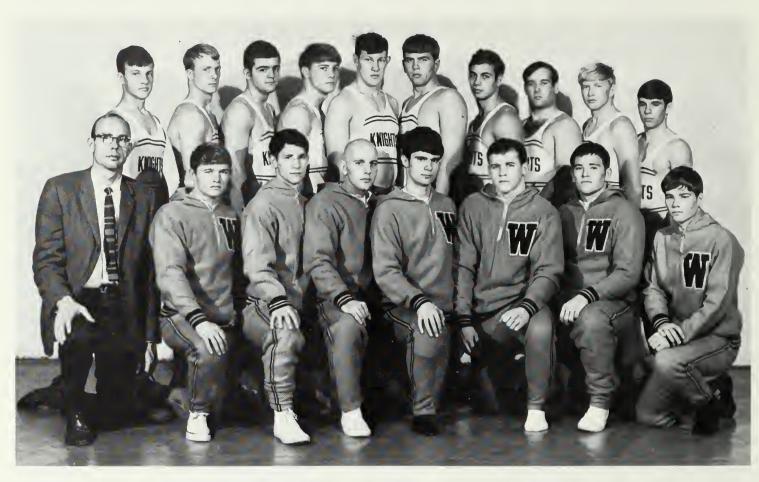

CONFERENCES BETWEEN quarterback Paul Specht and Coach Lee Bondhus prove to be a successful tactic in season play.

Wartburg Grapplers Acquire New Coach

bach, Tom Turner, Fran Buckel, Garold Zander, Dean Knight, Al Mohr, Greg Slager, Mike Ketchum, Dick Messerly.

Wartburg's new grappler coach, Richard Walker, was confronted by a young team this season. Returning were six lettermen, including Tom Turner at 145, who was an Iowa Conference champion; and second-place finishers Mick Ketchum at 137, Greg Slager at 177 and Dean Knight at 191 or heavyweight. However, prospects were bright with junior Dave Wolff, out for the first time, and sophomore Fran Buckel.

The Knights posted an 8—6 record, a respectable performance, considering the lack of depth in the squad and ineligibilities and injuries. Contributing to the team's performance was Mike Ketchum, who placed fourth in the NAIA tournament.

Wartburg Has Finest Team in School History

This season Wartburg produced the finest basket-ball team in its history. The Knights finished with a 25—1 over-all record and won the Lutheran Welfare Tournament, the Iowa Conference Championship and District 15 Playoffs, which qualified the team to play in the NAIA Championship Tournament in Kansas City.

Twenty-five basketball wins in a row is the story of victory-minded Coach Lewis "Buzz" Levick. Contributing to the success of Wartburg's basketball team was consistency. Before every game Coach Levick had the difficult task of explaining to his players that the opposition would try to knock the Knights off the top, but each time Wartburg stayed at the top.

In the starting five, the essential skills of all aspects of the game were represented by the rebounding of D. D. Brunscheen and Cliff Cornelius, the shooting of Tom Manchester and G. E. Buenning and the defensive work of Virg Erickson. The top reserves, Jim Barkema, Paul Bruns and Fred Grawe, exhibited the spark which oftentimes led to one of the Knights' big spurts.

In spite of individual talents, team members played together as a unit to achieve success for the team and for the school.

FURIOUS ACTION under the board and sharp shooting by guard Tom Manchester helps Wartburg subdue Central of Pella, 66—49.

LEAPING HIGH for one of eleven rebounds is D. D. Brunscheen, who made 14 points as Wartburg dropped B.V., 80—56.

OVER OUTSTRETCHED arms of a Buena Vista guard, junior Virgil Erickson makes a spectacular shot from the corner for two points.

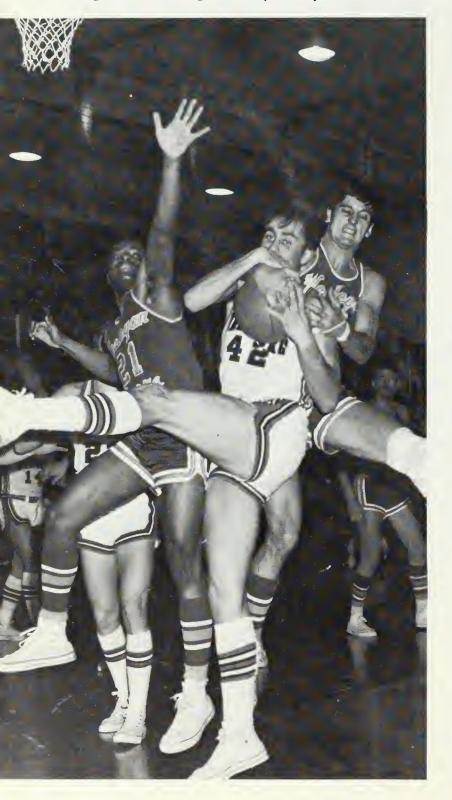

TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS, the Knights receive congratulations from Mr. Paul Knudtson, District 15 NAIA chairman.

TIGHT GUARDING by Iowa Wesleyan fails to check G. E. Buenning as he leads the Knights to victory with 30 points.

SEARCHING DESPERATELY for a pass opening, guard Virg Erickson calls for assistance to elude a well-placed block.

Cheerleaders Rally School Spirit

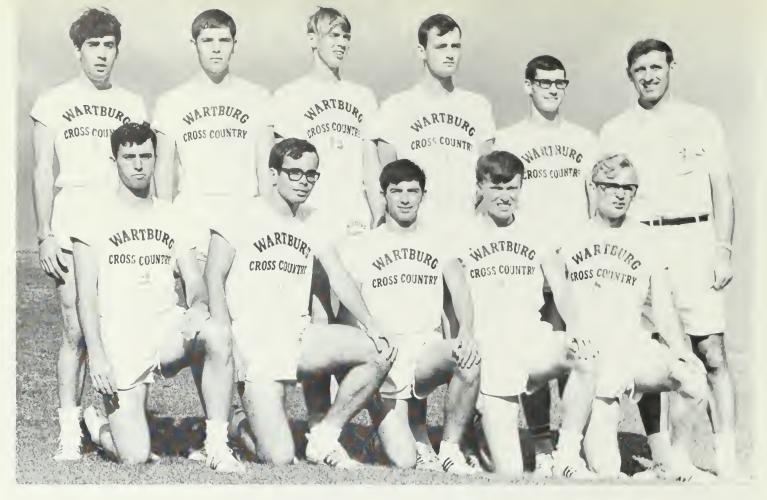

Wartburg cheerleaders, displaying pep and energy, rely upon the student body for vocal support in familiar cheers and chants. "W-W" and "Let's go, Knights" are heard at games and pep rallies as they work to strengthen school spirit.

This year the five girls donned new orange and white pleated skirts and orange V-neck sweaters. The cheerleaders' spark and enthusiasm are displayed at freshman initiation, special pep rallies and Homecoming activities.

On the gym floor, football field or cross-country course, Wartburg's cheerleaders are there to lead the Knights on to victory.

Injury-Ridden Harriers Grab 2nd In IIAC

Though hampered by injury, Wartburg's cross-country team, with the addition of talented freshmen, again finished successfully in all meets and ran second in the Iowa Conference—final statistics, 6-4.

Doug Beck led the team all season, taking over ably for Jon Thieman, who graduated last spring. Beck won many individual titles and finished 58th in the NCAA National Meet.

Rod Holt ran a good season when his injuries were not troubling him and the team. Holt finished the season with a second in the conference meet and 69th in the NCAA National Meet.

These years are a continuing process of rebuilding championships; and 1969 promises to be significantly fruitful.

Golfers Finish Second

Inclement weather accompanied by seasonal windy spring days took a toll in Wartburg golfing last spring as the linksters finished with only a 2-8 dual meet season.

Conference finals showed that the linksters had improved in team and individual consistency by scoring an unexpected second place behind Simpson. According to Coach Norm Johansen, "The second-place finish in the conference meet made the season successful despite the poor showing in dual meets."

This was Coach Johansen's last year at Wartburg. Here since 1951, he left for a position at the University of Missouri.

Thinclads Compile 7-4 Dual Meet Record

Knight thinclads completed another successful season last spring with a 7-4 dual meet record and strong finishes of second in the Iowa Indoor and Conference meets.

Jon Thieman proved to be the outstanding performer of the season, winning Wartburg's only firsts in both the Dickinson Relays (Cedar Falls) and the Norse Relays (Decorah). Jon was also the first man to qualify for the nationals in several years. Thieman ran the 880-yard run and the mile, distinguishing himself especially in the mile by qualifying for the Nationals.

Continually bad weather failed to discourage the Knights, as they ran an excellent season.

Finishing with a 12-8 overall record, the 1968 Knight baseball team had another winning season. The Knights had a .500 season in the conference and finished in fourth place.

Pacing the way for Wartburg were Tom Cain, John Hearn and Virgil Erickson. In pitching, Cain posted a 7-2 record and Hearn 5-3. Cain also won the NAIA and the NCAA titles with a 0.31 ERA.

Virgil Erickson led the Knights in hitting with a .327 average and tied with Hearn's 10 RBI's.

With many veteran players returning, the Knights have reason to expect a great return season in baseball.

LEADING OFF for the Knights, Virgil Erickson smashes the baseball on a fast pitch into the right outfield.

Unhampered by a washout of conference doubles, Knight netmen smashed their way to a 4-6 dual meet in the 1968 season. In spite of a loss of several key players, Wartburg posted a tie for fourth place in conference action.

Coach Kramer considered 1968 a rebuilding year with bigger and better meets to come in 1969.

Organizations

Abda-el Accents Lay Participation

Abda-el, meaning "servant of God" in Hebrew, provides fellowship and inspiration for students. Newly organized, the group directs its activities toward the laymen who are preparing for a vocation in the church.

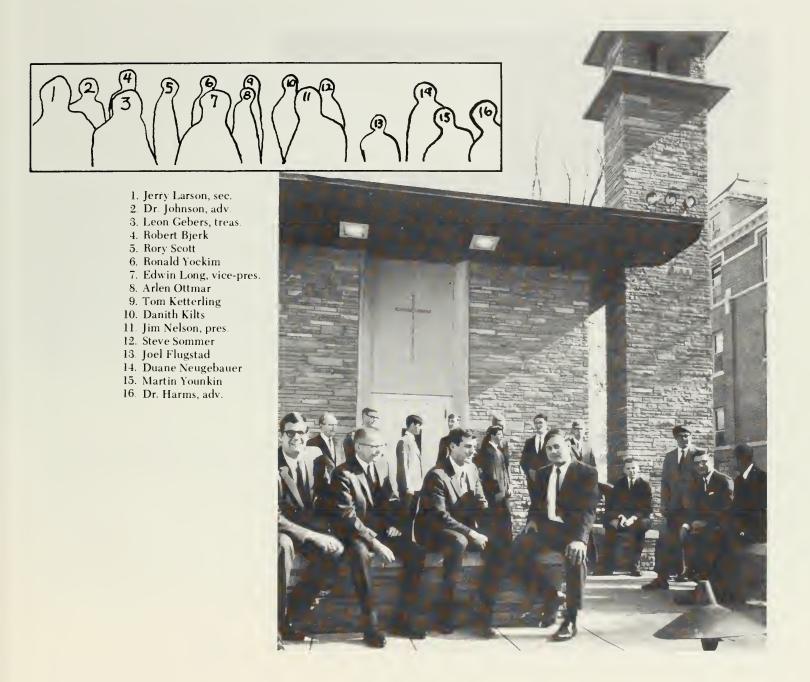

Abda-el programs are designed to give an exposure to the needs, problems, opportunities and creative expressions of the church in today's world. Instead of following a set schedule, meetings are arranged as resources of the group develop.

Programs center around a wide variety of Christian lay work. Dr. Karl Schmidt and Mr. Donald Vetter lead the members in discussing West Coast parish work, the Parish Mission Builder Program, Lutheran education and church music.

Chi Rho Enriches Student Spiritual Life

Chi Rho helps to prepare Wartburg's "pre-the's" for the ministry by touching on many of the aspects of the ministry through actual experience. Their purpose is to develop close fellowship that will continue in and beyond the seminary.

Field trips to a Jewish synagogue, Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque convent and Toledo Group Home were enriching phases of Chi Rho this year. The men also sponsored a Christmas candlelight service, a weekend of pastoral visitations, calls at Bartels Home and a Spring Banquet.

"Tune In, Turn Out" was the key phrase for the actions of the student congregation this year. The "Tune In, Turn Out" program offered each individual an opportunity to "tune in" to worship and to "turn out" and evidence his faith by participating in various activities sponsored by the student congregation.

Instructional and experimental Eucharist services during the month of October highlighted the year. The continuance of Grope Group, the deacons program, daily devotional services and the two Sunday services helped to maintain the congregation's position as a self-perpetuating organization, supported and governed by the students, serving the spiritual needs of the students.

COMMUNING TOGETHER in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, members of the student congregation share their common faith.

Alpha Phi Gamma Promotes Journalism

Promoting the field of journalism, members of the Beta Delta Chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma compile and publish the college directory and send out a Christmas newsletter to alumni. In addition, the group sponsors a Sunday morning breakfast for alumni on Homecoming weekend, holds an open house on high school visitation day and is responsible for the yearly press banquet held in May.

Castle Reveals Literary Prowess

Prose, poetry, essay, and various forms of artwork and photography combine to make the Castle an expression of art as well as current topics of interest and concern. This smaller more professional-sized book included music composition for the first time in many years. Castle sponsored poetry meetings for the discussion and improvement of student works.

Fortress Compiled Through Diligent Effort

Inadequately staffed, the Fortress met deadlines mentally exhausted and physically beat, enabling distribution to interested students in May.

A limited budget made it impossible to have color in the yearbook. Therefore, gold contempore endsheets and an opening section using gold contempore stock paper was substituted. Organization page layouts utilized a new style. Artwork was employed to identify informally taken organization pictures.

The 1968 Fortress received a high "First Class" rating from the Associated Collegiate Press and an "A" rating from the National School Yearbook Association for its excellence.

Trumpet Compiles Weekly History of Wartburg

Retaining its status as a student newspaper, the Wartburg Trumpet conveys to the student body the campus news. Being a weekly tabloid, it placed emphasis on feature stories rather than on objective reporting. During the year the staff put to press thirty issues, including several exclusive editions, a sixteen-page Homecoming special and two fashion sections.

United in effort, the members of the Trumpet staff were able to compile an informative, accurate and comprehensive image of Wartburg College.

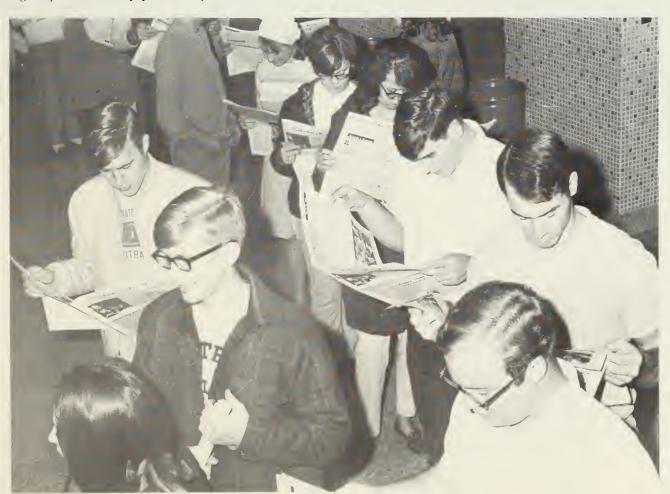

The Trumpet this year had the benefit of three staff members who had received professional experience on the Waterloo and Waverly newspapers during the first May Term Extended Field Experience.

WLC and WJC Control Women's Campus Life

The Women's Legislative Council seeks to serve the women students of Wartburg College in all areas of their school life. This is accomplished through representatives from each housing unit, who bring the concerns of the women to the council. The main issue to come before the council concerned the abolishment of upperclass women's hours and extension of hours for underclass women.

The Women's Judicial Council is the women's disciplinary body on the Wartburg campus. This group acts on cases brought to its attention by dorm councils or head residents, usually administering where more severe disciplinary measures are needed.

MCB Regulates Men's Activities

MCB concerns itself with male student welfare and coordination of the men's housing units. Ruling on violations of the drinking code and noisemaking, and engaged in discussions to study the possibility of an open-house closed-door policy in the dorms, the members met regularly with Mr. Wessman, counseling services director, to discuss the problems of the dorm proctors. MCB selected male proctors for the coming school year. The "Yell Like Hell" contest held during the Homecoming Pep Rally was sponsored by the organization.

Kappa Delta Pi Honors Teaching Profession

Upholding the principles of education through scholarship and service is the purpose of Kappa Delta Pi. The Kappa Iota chapter of this national fraternity is open to junior and senior education majors.

Programs throughout the year dealt specifically with education. Joint meetings were planned with the members of Student Education Association. A more continuous program is student teaching. Early in the fall a banquet was held for the initiation of new members.

Students with impressive grade-point averages make up the membership of the Iowa Alpha Chapter of Alpha Chi. Following its scholarly aspect and purpose of recognition of scholarship and character, the program for the year was directed toward the evaluation of man.

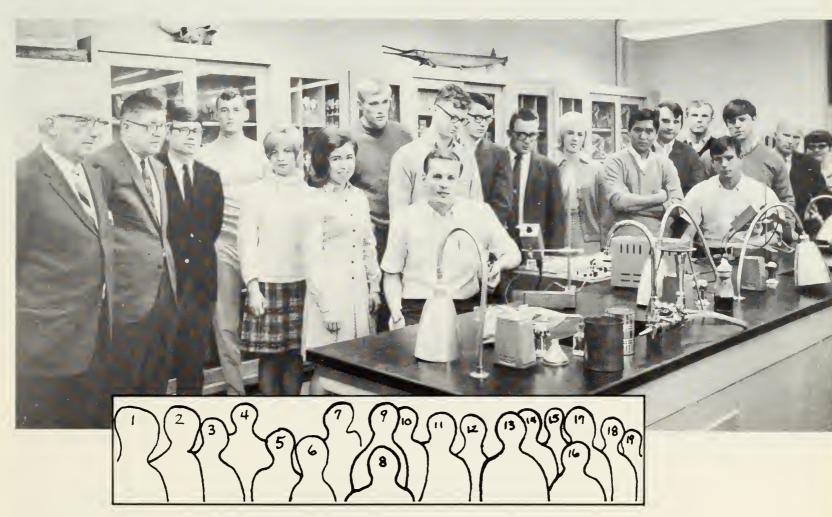

The year began with the annual graduate school information program and an evening featuring a student evaluation and dissection of the May Term experience. An informal discussion on new philosophies of the world was held to sharpen members' awareness of the current intellectual climate.

The question of escape in modern society was covered during the year, and a discussion of one of the Waverly-Wartburg Film Series numbers. The concluding event for Alpha Chi was the annual spring banquet and installation of new officers.

Beta Beta Probes Biological Issues

Beta Beta Beta, the national honorary biological society, promotes investigations into the biological sciences. The Gamma Lambda chapter at Wartburg had an intriguing program of lectures this year. Paul Nelson gave a presentation summarizing his work with water pollution during the past summer. December brought a lecture on organ transplants by Dr. Gerard of Waterloo.

Visiting scientists from the University of Iowa were also on the agenda. A journey was made to the University of Iowa for the Iowa Academy of Science. Not all was work, however, for a banquet accepting new members was held in the spring.

Debaters Dispute Presidential Power

Debaters were confronted with the sticky task of arguing "the executive control of United States government foreign policy should be significantly curtailed." This topic, which provided the fuel for a year of debating, demanded the best of the Wartburg squad's skill in the six or seven tournaments held throughout the Midwest during the course of the year.

When a debater has shown his excellence in argumentative speaking by point accumulation and team wins he is eligible to join Pi Kappa Delta, Wartburg's honorary organization in the field of forensics.

Mu Phi Epsilon Emphasizes Music

Chartering, pledging, initiation and installation into the international professional music sorority, Mu Phi Epsilon, was an event most memorable to the charter members of the Beta Rho chapter at Wart-

The purpose of Mu Phi Epsilon is twofold; the advancement of music in the world and the promotion of music scholarship. To perpetuate these goals Beta Rho presented two public recitals and made visits to the Children's and Bartel's Homes. The placement of a Christmas tree in the Fine Arts Center sharpened the holiday spirit.

Alpha Psi Omega Excels in Drama

Members of Alpha Psi Omega form a core of proficient dramatists whose aim is the promotion and encouragement of excellence in the dramatic arts on the Wartburg campus.

In the fall members of the Wartburg chapter, Lambda Mu, invited members from the Upper Iowa chapter to present "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown." Later in the year the chapter bought pins for its senior members with money raised through a movie in December. They also worked on producing, writing and directing their own plays.

Active in all facets of dramatic production, members of the Wartburg Players worked diligently to make their various projects successful.

Many players enjoyed a unique experience by utilizing an elaborate theatre-in-the-round technique in the Little Theatre for "The Ballad of the Sad Cafe." Besides preparations for the May Term Touring Theatre, another major project was Robert Lowell's trilogy, "The Old Glory." Produced in March, the three plays involved in "The Old Glory" gave many players opportunity to be engaged in several phases of theatrical productions.

BSA Explores Opportunities in Business

Providing its members with an objective outlook in the field of business through programs which deal with job opportunities, business trends and related subjects is the purpose of the Business Students Association.

Programs during the year included films and guest speakers. A field trip was also planned. At an annual banquet the Wall Street Journal Award and the National Business Education Association Award were presented to two outstanding senior members.

Corporation Education Program Is Innovation

Wartburg College and participating companies drew considerable attention through the organization of the Corporation Education Program. Described by a U.S. Steel executive as one of the most imaginative programs developed in education in some years, it began with eight corporations. These were Deere and Co., Iowa Public Service, Lennox Industries, Northwestern Bell, Hawkeye Steel, Carnation, Schield Bantam and Lutheran Mutual Insurance.

CORPORATION EDUCATION PROGRAM: Mr. E. Kenneth Corporon, treas., Iowa Public Service Company; Mr. T. R. Thompson, division controller, asst. to gen. manager, Lennox Industries; Mr. Robert Ruisch, vice-pres., gen. manager, Iowa Public Service Co.; Dr. Melvin Kramer; Pres. John Bachman; Mr. T. R. Lorenzen, pres., Hawkeye Steel Products.

CORPORATION EDUCATION PROGRAM: Mr. Michael McClung, student advisory council member; Mr. Robert Giertz, gen. manager, John Deere Tractor Works; Mr. William Kerby, vice-pres., area manager of Iowa, Loewi & Company; Mr. Paul Kallestad, student advisory council member; Mr. E. T. Koopman, pres., Lutheran Mutual Life Insurance Co.; Mr. William Engelbrecht, vice-chairman, Board of Regents.

SEA is a pre-professional organization with the aim of developing among its members an understanding of the teaching profession, through participation in professional activities.

The Wartburg chapter of SEA was honored this year by being chosen host for the Fall Northeast Regional Meeting. Attending this meeting were nine other colleges; the topic was "Student Voice in Politics."

SEA members began the year with an informal introductory picnic. The college chapter of the ISEA met with the Waverly Education Association for a program centered around "Politics in Education." Placement was another pertinent topic covered. Fine movies such as "Make a Mighty Reach" and "Teaching the One and the Many" were also enjoyed and discussed.

RELATING EXPERIENCES of student teaching, Rich Gaard is found speechless before sharing humorous classroom incidents.

SINGING CAROLS at the annual Christmas banquet, SEA members combine festive fun with an educational program.

Much bolstered by the spirit of members returned from study in Germany, Hans Sachs Verein planned an exciting year. One of the activities of the club was conducting the reception for the Obernkirchen Children's Choir, a delightful group of personable and talented youngsters who sang for the Artist Series audience.

With snow flurries announcing the coming of winter, the annual Christmas banquet, held in December, was followed by an evening of German caroling. The club also planned a trip to the Amana Colonies and a presentation of films taken by members who spent their summer in Passau, Germany.

Le Cercle Français Enjoys Lively Folk-Sing

Enthusiastic members of Wartburg's French Club increase their interest in the French language and culture. The first meeting appropriately featured the showing and narrating of slides taken by members who participated in Wartburg's first Study Abroad Program at Besacon, France.

A lively French folk-sing was held in November, and the traditional Christmas banquet checred everyone before finals in December. The annual French Week shaped up as ambitiously as ever in February as the group planned to present a Molière play, have a "gourmet" meal served in the cafeteria and sponsor a movie.

New services were also provided by the club in the way of tutoring desperate beginning students and orienting those planning to journey to France in May and June.

Motivation to promote the interests of chemistry directed the American Chemical Society to undertake a variety of projects. These projects included a field trip to Honeywell Research Laboratory and the University of Minnesota.

Meetings during the year were highlighted by speakers from the University of Iowa and the Argonne National Laboratories. However, not all activities focused on the academic. The society planned and constructed a Homecoming float and enjoyed a festive Christmas party.

Providing valuable practical experience to students in the field of radio communications is the stated purpose of KWAR-FM, the radio station located on the Wartburg College campus. Bringing entertainment and news to the Wartburg and Waverly communities, KWAR is known as the "Voice of the Knights."

In addition to regularly scheduled programs, KWAR-FM also provides coverage of athletic events and the annual student body presidential nominating convention. Marathons, which provide a weekend of continuous broadcasting of humorous and sometimes satirical dedications, are also a welcome addition to the regular schedule.

The program for the year included speakers who presented information on such topics as low-income housing, violence and various other subjects. The activities of the club included visits to the Mental Institution in Independence and the sponsorship of two plays.

Passavant Club is named after a pioneer in the Lutheran deaconess movement, the Rev. William A. Passavant. It is open to all students with an interest in the various areas of social work and scrvice to others.

PE Club Promotes Health and Recreation

Physical Education Club centers its activities around a concern for health, physical education and recreation. In keeping with its theme of activity, the year was accented by skating and swimming parties. Annual sponsors of a Fun Night and a Donut Dunkin' Party, P.E. Club climaxed the year with a dinner party in the Castle Room.

Appealing to Wartburg's "fair ladies," Pi Sigma again claimed the noble intentions of stimulating social life on campus and providing interested women with the opportunity to practice social graces.

As in years past, the Get-Acquainted Tea allowed freshmen and transfer students to do just that on the first weekend of the school year. Later, the Homecoming Fashion Show added to the festive mood abounding during that annual fall "happening."

Christmastime meant the turnabout formal ball with the theme "Fantasy in Funland." Then in the spring a fashion show was again held to keep girls abreast of the latest styles. Pi Sigma's year was concluded with initiation ceremonies.

CROWNING QUEEN Carolyn Wolf of the annual Pi Sigma Christmas Ball, Margery Zinser relinquishes her title.

DANCING RHYTHMICALLY to entertainment provided by the Knightliters, couples enjoy an evening of "Fantasy in Funland."

Ushers Club Escorts Artist Series Patrons

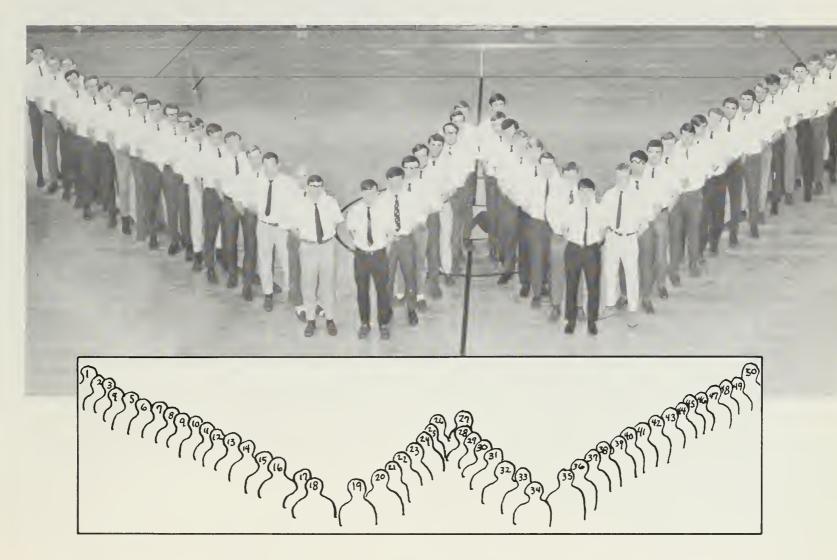

An expectant, pre-performance atmosphere is set by the members of Ushers Club, who genially guide guests to their reserved seats with decorum and efficiency. The club provides ushers for Artist Series presentations and many other cultural programs on the entertainment agenda. It is a service organization whose primary objective is to project goodwill toward patrons of the fine cultural experiences available through college auspices.

A gesture of thanks by the Artist Series Committee, which sponsors the group, is the annual spring banquet culminating the season for active members. Head ushers become the permanent recipients of semiformal gowns and tuxedos, provided by the Artist Series Committee.

Keeping athletic interest high at Wartburg and promoting high standards of good sportsmanship and conduct are the main goals of "W" Club. Each year two rigorous initiations are held for prospective members.

"W" Club chooses three co-eds to reign as Fall, Winter and Spring Sports Queens. The men honor one of their members each month as "Athlete of the Month." In addition to sponsoring social activities, "W" Club also sponsors the concession stand at sports events.

World Affairs Forum Maintains Model U.N.

World Affairs Forum sponsored participation in various model United Nations and programs on issues of world concern such as the Soviet intervention in Czechoslovakia and the economic crisis in France.

WAF has as its purpose the nourishing of understanding of man. The group's viewpoint perceives conflicts and differences, not as clefts to further the division of the world community, but as bonds of experience which may come to unite us on a deeper level of human existence.

Chi Gamma Presents Wartburg to Visitors

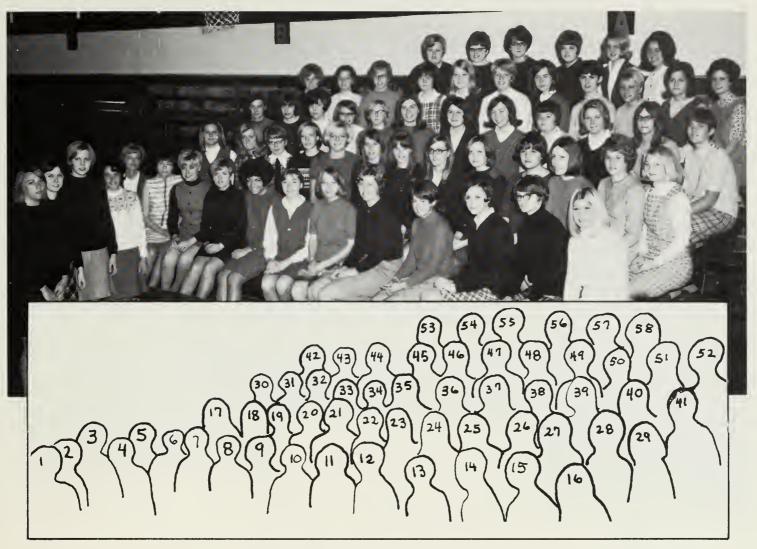

Chi Gamma is an organization of campus guides. High school visitation days require assistance from all members; but any day of the week at any time a guide may be called upon to lead a tour. Members have the opportunity of meeting prospective Wartburg students and are able to answer all kinds of interesting questions from students as well as adults about Wartburg College.

Young Democrats Are Active in '68 Election

Young Democrats found themselves very active at the beginning of the year by involving themselves in the 1968 election campaigns. The group helped place posters about Bremer County and put hundreds of bumper stickers on cars. Many hours were spent passing out campaign material for their candidates and providing transportation to the polls on election day.

Throughout the year Young Democrats actively supported the tuition equalization plan, the eighteen-year-old vote movement and liberalization of high school policies toward political activity by the students.

Young Republicans Inform the Public

Informing the public on matters of general concern as well as the actions the Republican Party is taking on current problems is the goal of Young Republicans.

Working on the Presidential election of 1968, the group did canvassing and campaign work for the Waverly Republican headquarters. The organization established a mobile headquarters and sponsored an election night gathering at the Waverly V.F.W.

The year's program included such eminent speakers as Sen. Robert Rigler, Sen. David Stanley, H. R. Gross and Rep. L. W. Kehc. Informative discussions on major party spokesmen began in January. The Young Republicans are active supporters of the Iowa Tuition-Grant Program.

Psychology Club Studies Human Behavior

Highlighting the year for members of the Wartburg Psychological Society were programs on the treatment of emotionally disturbed children. Meetings included the showing of the film "David and Lisa" and a speaker from the Lutheran Children's Home in Waverly. The year's program also included various other guest speakers and discussions on topics of current interest in psychology.

Wartburg's Philosophical Association works to give philosophy majors an opportunity to consider basic philosophical questions, to promote the relationship between philosophy and other disciplines and to give all interested students and faculty members opportunity to engage in dialectic exercise.

In line with these goals, the association sponsored several programs this year, including lectures by Dr. Emory Lindquist and by the Rev. Waldemar Gies. The group also sponsored a social evening for members.

Castle Singers Delight with Drama and Music

Combining dramatic and musical abilities, the Castle Singers emphasize flexibility and versatility in performance under the direction of Dr. James Fritschel.

Highlighting the Castle Singers' season was the first combined tour of Singers and Concert Band to Washington, D.C. They also performed for the Wisconsin District Luther League Convention in Milwaukee and later traveled to Des Moines, delighting the Music Educators' Convention with their presentations.

Symphony Provides Musical Diversion

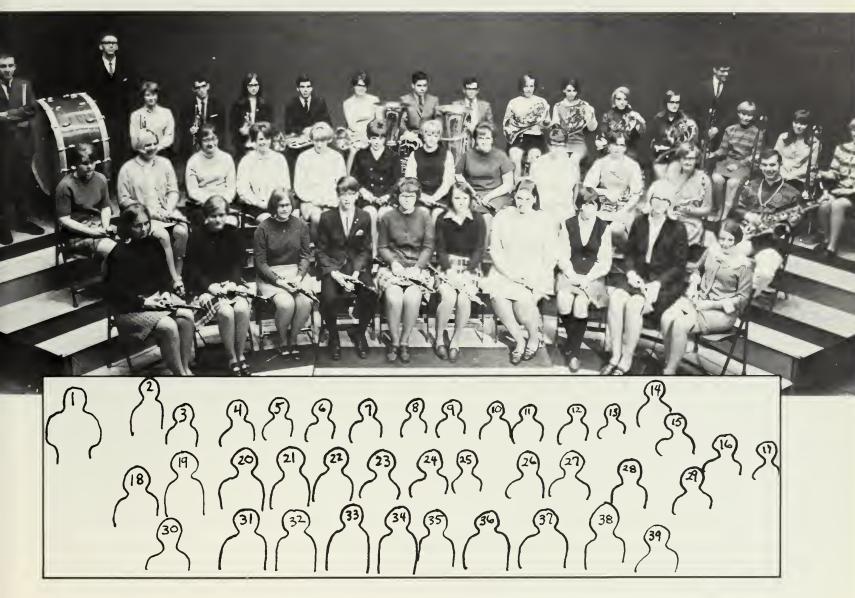

FEATURED NARRATOR, television's Dr. Max, recounts the story of "Peter and the Wolf" to a captivated audience.

Diversity of sound in music was presented on campus by the Wartburg Community Symphony Orchestra. The season's concerts brought the "Messiah," featuring the Oratorio Chorus and Orchestra, also an ultramodern touch of all-American music composed by Dr. James Fritschel and the annual youth concert. Numerous name performers from outside the Wartburg area were also featured, including William Wiederanders, a Wartburg alumnus who has sung in Carnegie Hall.

Contributions to the Community Symphony help in a variety of ways to bring good music to northeast Iowa. A major project is a String Scholarship Fund, which provides financial aid to string players at Wartburg College.

Wartburg Varsity Band has only in recent years come into the campus spotlight with its participation in the Homecoming Parade and assorted small concerts and athletic events. Meeting only twice a week, Varsity Band is virtually under student direction and management.

Its completely voluntary membership, without auditions, provides excellent opportunity for all "part-time" musicians on campus to keep in shape and enjoy the thrill of performance without an exceptional amount of work on each individual's part. Its success is evidence of what students can accomplish with a lot of ambition and a little musical talent.

Wartburg Pep Band Contributes Enthusiasm

Adding to the spirit at athletic events, the Pep Band led fans in the loyalty and fight songs and aided the cheerleaders with musical cheers. Under the direction of junior Dave Harms, the band provided comic relief to basketball pre-game warmups with a rousing rendition of "Sweet Georgia Brown."

ENTERTAINMENT DURING the half-time lag at basketball games is provided by members of the Wartburg Pep Band.

Knightliters Is Group of Talented Musicians

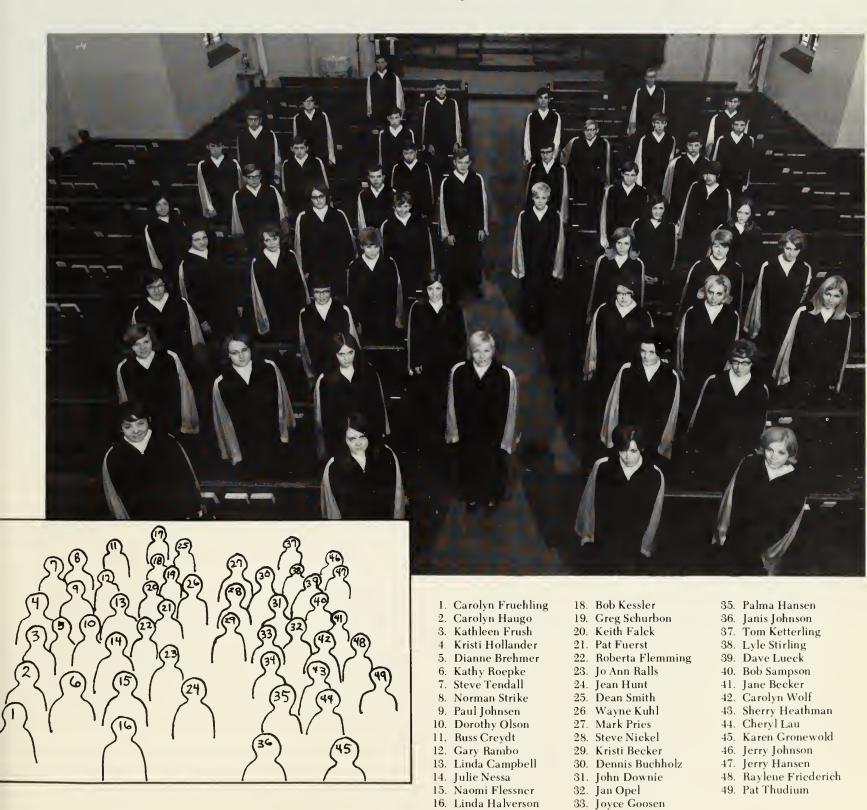

Providing a reserved selection of favorite dance tunes is the province of Wartburg's dance band, the Knightliters. This sixteen-member band is under the direction of Mike Krumm. The band furnished music for such social events as Homecoming, the Pi Sigma Christmas formal and the F.A.C. dinner dance.

PI SIGMA'S Christmas turn-about formal dance came to life with romantic music provided by the Knightliters.

Wartburg Choir Members Perform Sacred Music

An a cappella organization of selected voices, the Wartburg Choir performs sacred music for religious convocations and campus worship services as well as furnishing liturgical choirs for Sunday services in area churches.

Under the new direction of Dr. James Fritschel, the choir this year took its annual tour through Iowa and Nebraska. The group presented a Homecoming concert and participated in the "Christmas at Wartburg" production of Handel's "Messiah."

Wartburg College Coneert Band onee again sounded forth brilliantly in its busy sehedule of activities this year. Under the direction of Dr. Robert E. Lee, the band preluded its season with a Homeeoming weekend eoneert. The tempo eontinued at a steady beat with the band's presentation of a fall eoneert, assisted by "The Knightliters" and the Castle Singers, plus a winter eoneert.

Band-Aid Follies provided a variation from the basic rhythm, and "The Knightliters" set the tempo for a versatile program of musical and comic entertainment.

The grand finale of the season was realized when forty members were selected to accompany the Castle Singers on a spring tour to Washington, D.C., presenting a variety of musical entertainment, which was also given along the way in Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Student Senate Creates Ombudsman Position

Student Senate members represent the student and his wishes to the administration and faculty of the college. To further this purpose the office of Ombudsman was created.

Actions were recommended which lead to an alternate route to graduation, course evaluations, constitutional revisions, a statement from the Regents on student rights and the publication of a supplemental college brochure, "The Peculiar Malady," written by students for prospective students.

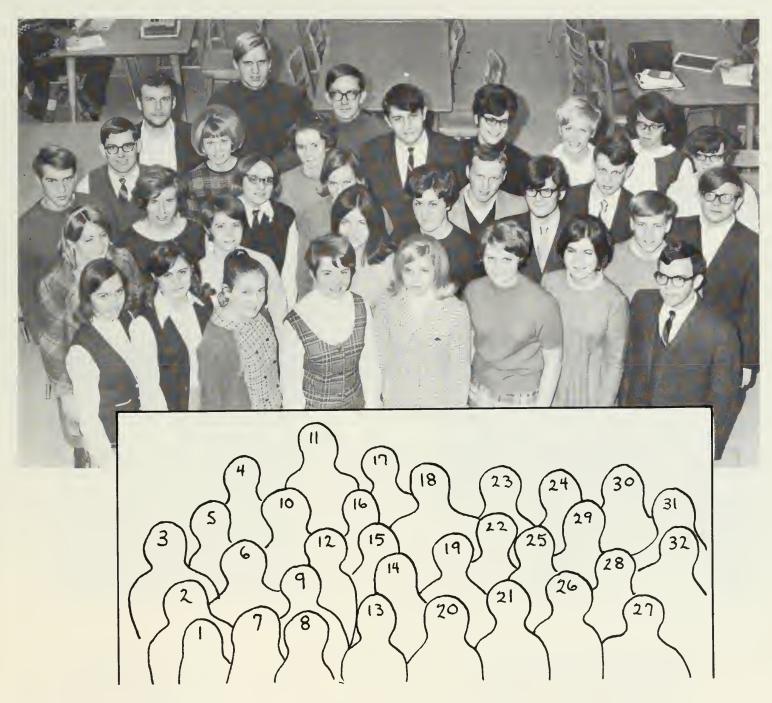

Senate assisted the action which led to the changes made in women's hours and sponsored an all-Iowa conference on the Tuition Grant proposal.

Homecoming, Senate Night and Snow Weekend were among the programs sponsored and prepared by Senate committees.

Honors Program Evaluates Many Topics

Permanent groups in the Honors Program evaluated diversified topics. For the general topics of poetry and aesthetic experiences, the members brought poetry which interested them and objects which held aesthetic value for them. Colloquia were held in an informal atmosphere in faculty homes.

The most significant event of the year was the cultural trip to Chicago for a concert by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, an opera at the Chicago Opera House and a play at Goodman Theatre. Some members toured the Chicago Institute of Art and the Museum of Science and Industry.

Afton Manor Experiments Dorm Life Innovation

An experiment in dorm life is Afton Manor. Each individual unit, Chellevold, Schmidt, Ernst and Cornils, houses only twenty-four women, thus creating a unified and congenial atmosphere for college life. The kindred spirit in each house can be seen through its activities: faculty teas, Sunday suppers by the fire, Christmas parties and caroling and general participation in campus life.

Alpha Combines Men of Diverse Interests

To the northwest stands Alpha, the house of fourteen men who play a vital role in all areas of eampus life—student government, athleties, music, IM's, journalism and other eampus organizations.

Alpha planned several social events, including a fall Outfly pienie at Backbone State Park, fall and spring House parties, a trip to Minneapolis and the traditional Camp Ewalu Lodge Party.

The men of Alpha also invited a convocation speaker and several faculty members to spur intellectual discussion and debate.

Alpha House combines men with different backgrounds, varying interests and divergent goals into one unit, that functions as a working part of the Wartburg eommunity.

Structurally Divided

"Divided in body, but not in spirit" best describes the situation of Beta House as the organization split into two houses. The beginning of Beta House as a recognized campus organization also took place in Pursuit of high academic excellence was balanced by projects such as the fall picnic for the Beta men and their dates, a float in the Homecoming parade, a toboggan party and several impromptu social functions. To provide entertainment for the rest of the campus and to relieve financial pressures within the house, Beta also sponsored a movie and a dance.

Although only fifteen men live in Cotta House, it manages to boast eight football players (five All Conference this season), three sportscasters, three tennis players, two trackmen, one wrestler, one weightlifter and a greenskeeper.

While athletics unifies the Cotta men, their activities have been diversified. Thanksgiving was celebrated with a turkey roast, Christmas with a gift exchange and caroling party, and spring with an annual picnic. Cotta also harbored the fugitive SBP on the morning of Fall Outfly, served cake and coffee after each football game to House alumni and parents, participated in a physical therapy project, sponsored a dance and raised a kitten found on its doorstep.

Gamma House Carries on Wartburg Traditions

10. Bill Seifert11. Doug Fairchild12. Paul Kallestad

Characterized by unity and friendliness, and never known for their lack of spirit, the men of Gamma contribute to the scholastic, athletic and social activities on campus. Though the order of these activities may sometimes be confused, enthusiasm for college life enables the Gamma men to carry on the tradition of their house and Wartburg College.

Defending IM champions, Gamma was again a leading competitor. Participating in the Homecoming parade and sponsoring a movie and a dance, the twelve men of Gamma are involved in all aspects of college life. Gamma House is proud of its contributions to Wartburg College.

Ketha Houses Numerous Wartburg Athletes

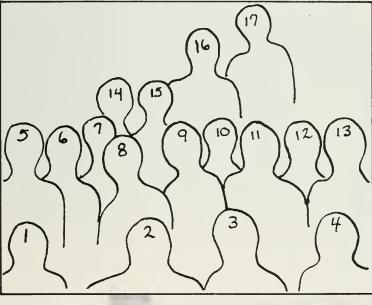

Fourteen in number, the men of Ketha House are active IM competitors and sponsors of the annual Thanksgiving Dance. Participating in varsity football, basketball, wrestling and baseball, the majority of Ketha's residents are lettermen and active members of "W" Club.

Continuing their project from last year, the Ketha men are putting the finishing touches on their basement recreation room and lounge.

Vollmer House Combines Diversified Hobbies

Vollmer House consists of seventeen distinct individuals whose diversified interests range from aeronautics and athletics to zythum and zymurgy. This fact combines to create an atmosphere of communal living which is conducive to unity and fellowship and adds significantly to the total learning experience of college life.

This year's Vollmer House initiated an extensive remodeling project which consumed most of the men's time and energy. The end result left no doubt that the men of Vollmer take pride and respect in the continued improvement of their residence.

Artist Series Provides Cultural Enrichment

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF November 6, 1968

"Tradition," the theme of the hit Broadway musical "Fiddler on the Roof," also played a prominent part in the Wartburg College Artist Series. The Series has a tradition of bringing to Wartburg the world's most outstanding musicians, dramatists, dancers and lecturers. This year's series represented a climactic achievement.

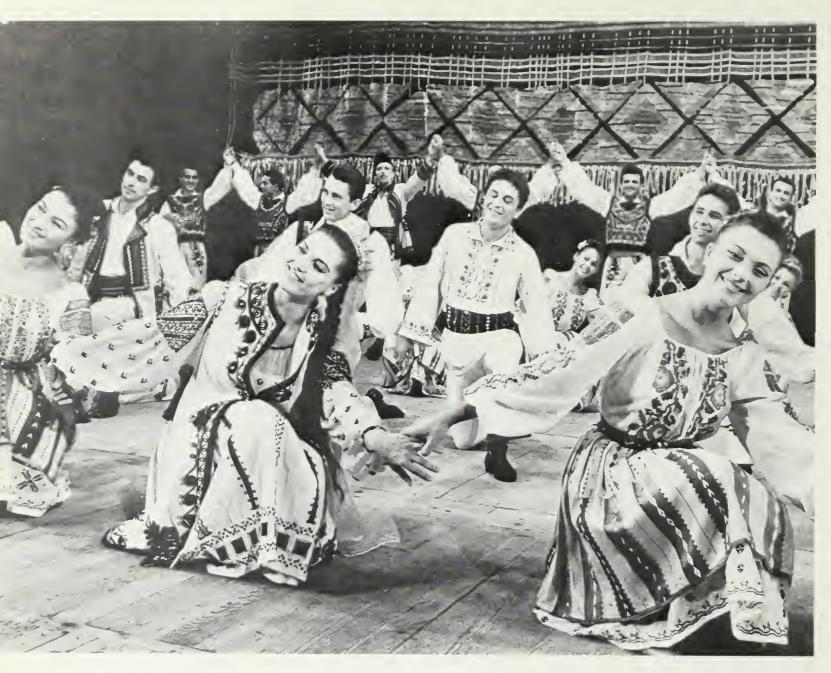

Filled with laughter and tenderness, sentiment and radiance, "Fiddler on the Roof" never loses its charm. The touching tale of an earthly dairyman is told in story, melody and dance. "Fiddler" is acclaimed to be one of the great works of the American musical theater.

Happy wanderers in America's great land perfectly describes the Obernkirchen Children's Choir. The group's appeal is universal, not simply because of the distinctive German dress, but because of their outstanding musical artistry.

Their critical reviews everywhere have glowed with praise. They make a joyous sound singing traditional and folk songs in five languages, and in a natural quality that shows they are still children.

ROMANIAN FOLK BALLET December 1, 1968

Some of the most spectacular dances, highlighted by dazzling costumes and accompanied by weird, wonderful and wild instruments, were performed by the Romanian Folk Ballet. Their national pastime, dancing, provided a virtual encyclopedia of their country. Vigorous and wonderfully appealing describes this spectacular group of outstanding soloists.

THE ROYAL P. D. Q. BACH FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA March 23, 1969

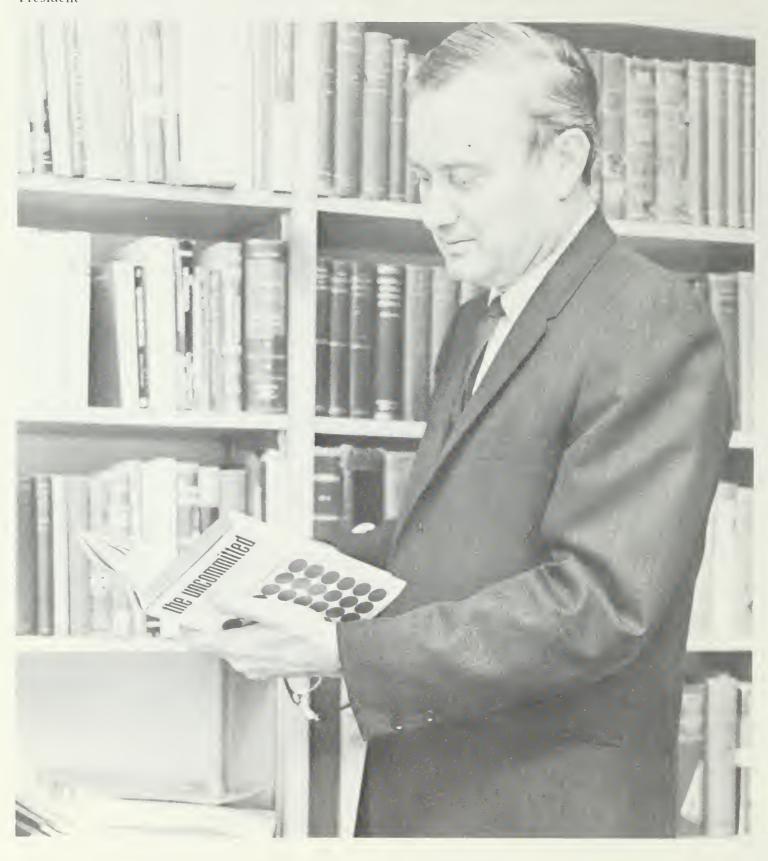

Noted for its Paganini Stradivarius instruments, the internationally hailed Iowa String Quartet consists of four professors of music from the University of Iowa.

The Royal P. D. Q. Bach Festival Orchestra, presented by impresario Sol Hurok, is a group of 35 musicians who parody classical music styles and conventions. This zany ensemble includes among its many instruments a harpsichord and a left-handed sewer flute. "P. D. Q. Bach" is the name of a dubious son of Johann Sebastian Bach.

Those fleeting hours

The rhythm of tiny feet taps out the fleeting hours of childhood.
The procession quickens into youth, maturity, retirement.

The thoughtful man plucks a portion of time from out the fleeting hours and leaves it behind as a symbol of his concern for those he loves.

A life has been lived.

Life insurance from Aid Association for Lutherans is such a symbol . . . a symbol of planning for the future. It is a mark a man leaves behind as a vivid reflection of someone who loved enough to prove it.

Aid Association for Lutherans Appleton, Wisconsin Fraternalife Insurance common concern for human worth
